

SPPO MEETING
November 30, 2010

The meeting was opened by Deb Hoff with a prayer, followed by the reading of the minutes and treasure's report.

Fundraiser Updates – Playtime Party Center will possibly have another St. Paul fundraiser night over winter break. Please keep checking the newsletter for date and information. Dartball will possibly be held again on January 22 and March 19. Information and details will be passed along in the newsletter. Please sign up to play and have a fun night with friends. Breakfast with Santa/Santa Shop will be on December 3 starting at 6 p.m. Volunteers are still needed to assemble trees and guessing jars for raffles. Help is also needed with taking the pictures with Santa and printing them off to be sold to the children. Also, any donations of wrapping paper, bags, boxes, etc. are welcome. Anyone willing to help with this fundraiser please see Stella O'Brien or Beth Vogel. St. Paul Movie Night is scheduled for December 10 starting at 6p.m. Romana & Beezus will be the movie showing and the cost will be $5 per child. Popcorn and water will also be sold for $1 each. Children can bring a blanket and pillow. Any 8th grader needing service hours is welcome to come help. Poinsettias Sales are still going on. Remember, you can purchase one for a memorial in church or just individually.

Teacher Appreciation Days – We still need a 7th grade parent volunteer for December and a 3rd grade parent volunteer for March. The 6th grade has done November so now the 7th grade will need to do December.

Bruce Puscian expressed the need for some possible volunteers in the spring for some gutter work around school grounds.

Randy Murray explained the Asantae Java coffee/coffee mug packages that were for sale now that could be used as Christmas gifts, etc. St Paul School will get half of the profit. These items will also be for sale in the Santa Shop.

Catholic Schools Week – Sharon Woebling stated that she has bought the teachers new red St. Paul School shirts with the money provided by SPPO. Sharon would like for a children's book author/illustrator to come to the school during that week to talk and meet with the children. The cost will be about $575. Right now SPPO does not have the funds. Sharon will discuss with Monsignor and Sister John if the funds could possibly come from the Parish general fund. Please check the newsletter for updates and details.

Todd Bishop from Playtime Party Center stated that they would be having a lock-in on the night of New Year's Eve. The cost will be $25 per person but they can only accept 150 kids. They will have skating and even a small breakfast in the morning. Please check his website for more details.

The meeting was adjourned with a closing prayer.

Respectfully submitted,
Veronica Hill – SPPO Secretary
